Applicant Name: _____

- a. All members are expected to successfully complete a minimum of twelve (12) hours of training/continuing education each calendar year in order to remain up-to-date in the topics listed in NFPA 1033, Ch. 1.3.7. "Tested" training/continuing education is preferred. Training/continuing education may include, but not be limited to, live and/or on-line courses, conferences, seminars, lectures, and practical/field evolutions. Documentation of training/continuing education shall be submitted to the respective Group Leader and will be recorded and reviewed annually.
- b. In accordance with NFPA 1033, Standard for Professional Qualifications for Fire Investigator, the investigator shall have and maintain at a minimum an up-to-date basic knowledge of the following topics beyond the high school level (Ch. 1.3.7): Fire Science, Fire Chemistry, Thermodynamics, Thermometry, Fire Dynamics, Explosion Dynamics, Computer Fire Modeling, Fire Investigation, Fire Analysis, Fire Investigation Methodology, Fire Investigation Technology, Hazardous Materials, Failure Analysis and Analytical Tools, Fire Protection Systems, Evidence Documentation, Collection, and Preservation, and Electricity and Electrical Systems.
- c. All members are expected to maintain a current Curriculum Vitae (CV). The member's CV should include professional experience, formal education, continuing/professional education, certifications/licenses/credentials, professional affiliations, and courtroom testimony/expert witness experience.
- d. All members should maintain affiliation with the International Association of Arson Investigators (IAAI) and/or the National Association of Fire Investigators (NAFI), and at a minimum should maintain, or be actively working towards if not already obtained, designation as a Fire Investigation Technician (FIT) through the IAAI. The FIT designation is an excellent first step towards obtaining certification as a Certified Fire Investigator (CFI) through the IAAI. All professional fire investigators should be actively working towards, if not already obtained, certification as a CFI through the IAAI, Certified Fire & Explosion Investigator (CFEI) through NAFI, and /or certified Fire Investigator through the Massachusetts Public Safety Fire Investigator Certification Coalition (MPSFICC).
